

PRESS RELEASE

St George's Day Wine Competition at Villány Wine Region

The traditional St George's Day Wine Competition was held this year for the 37th time, the samples were collected by mid-April 2022. The results of the competition were announced on Friday 22 April 2022 at 18:00 in Siklós Castle. A total of 74 producers entered 270 samples, of which 6 big gold, 55 gold and 140 silver medals were awarded. This event was supported by the project "Cross Border Wine Routes 2", registered under the number HUHR/1901/2.1.3/0054, so that producers from the Krizevci-Kalnik-Orehovec Wine Region could also enter samples for the wine competition. Two of the Croatian samples were awarded a gold medal. As a tradition, all the entered wines were tasted at the announcement of results ceremony, accompanied by a dinner.

The following prizes were awarded at the wine competition:

Tenkes' Captain's wine: Csányi Winery Teleki Tradition Kopár Villányi Franc

Siklós City wine: Ábel Winery - Olaszrizling 2020

Bajor Péter Memorial Award: Fontányi Winery - Olaszrizling 2021

Jantsits Award in the red wine category: Stier Winery - Kékfrankos Rose 2021

Jantsits Award white wine category: Stadler Béla - Olaszrizling 2021

Best Croatian wine category: Vinarija Korenko - Muškat Žuti

Best small producer white wine category: Faragó Imre - Olaszrizling 2021